Remarks on Prophet: No major trade impact seen

BANIKINKAR PATTANAYAK New Delhi, June 8

AS A NOW-SUSPENDED BJP spokesperson's comments on Prophet Muhammad drew condemnations from Islamic nations, especially those in western Asia, a look at India's relations with these countries suggests that if the issue is allowed to escalate, it could have serious economic implications for both.

tions, however, haven't yet been impacted. "No report of any cancellation of export or import order has been received so far," a senior government official told FE.

Trade or business rela-

Senior trade executives discounted fears of any major disruption in India's trade with West Asian countries due to this incident. Business is likely to trump politics in this case, especially because these are remarks of a few individuals who don't represent the Indian government and against whom action has already been taken by the ruling BJP, one of them said.

Moreover, there are factors as well. "While India depends heavily on West Asian nations for oil supplies, no economy that relies so much on oil revenue can afford to sever ties just like that," he

About 38% of India's fuel requirements in FY22 were met by members of the Gulf Co-operation Council (GCC) members — such as Saudi Arabia, the UAE, Qatar, Kuwait, Oman and Bahrain and Iran. The oil dependence, thus, reinforces the idea that these countries do matter to Similarly, they make up about 54% of India's inward remittances. India's goods imports from these countries were to the tune of $111 billion in FY22 - 18% of its total purchases from overseas. Similarly, India's exports to these countries stood at $45 billion last fiscal, or 11% of its total outbound shipment.

So while India's reliance on these countries is well documented, these nations, too, depend on New Delhi for various supplies, especially of essential items, trade analysts said. For instance, some of these economies, such as the UAE and Oman, have sought wheat supplies from India after New Delhi banned its exports.

New Delhi, June 8

SANDIP DAS

RETAIL PRICES OF wheat, edible oils and tomato have witnessed sharpest spike in the last one year while the rates of pulses such as chana and tur have declined.

Traders say that factors such as heat waves during March-April have adversely impacted the yield of wheat and tomato, thus pushing up prices while global spike in rates of edible oils — soyabean, palm and sunflower — have an impact on domestic prices.

According to department of consumer affairs, retail prices of wheat have increased by more than 13% to ₹30 a kg compared to year-ago period. However, rice prices have witnessed a moderate increase of around 1.7% to ₹36 a kg.

Because of a 3% decline in production of wheat in current crop year (2021-22) to 106.41 million tonne (MT) compared to 109.59 MT in 2020-21, the government had to impose ban on wheat exports last month for improving domestic supplies.

Retail prices of edible oils, especially palm and sunflower, have increased by 16% and 11% to ₹156 and ₹192 a litre at present from year-ago period. Prices of domestically grown mustard and groundnut oil have increased by 7% and 4% to ₹182 and ₹187 a litre, respectively.

Retail prices of wheat, edible oil

& tomato witness sharp spike

India imports about 55-56% of its total domestic requirement of edible oils.

Global prices of palm and sunflower oils have witnessed an increase of 36% and 32%, respectively in the last one year.

The edible oil and fat category saw inflation at 17.28% in April 2022, mostly contributed by sharp spikes in domestic prices of edible oil in the last one year.

In case of key vegetables such as tomato and potato, retail price increase has been 163% and 23% to ₹52 and ₹24 a kg, respectively at present in comparison to yearago period.

RBI governor Shaktikanta Das on Wednesday said the upside risk to inflation persists and the recent spike in tomato prices would fuel food inflation.

Retail food inflation remained above the headline print for the second straight month in April at 8.1%.

According to mandi officials in Kolar, Karnataka, a hub of tomato trade, prices are expected to remain firm in the next couple of weeks before commencing a decline in the middle of June, once crop from Maharashtra enters the market.
